University of Cape Town
BSc in Mechatronics Engineering

PROFILE: A Final-year Mechatronics Engineering student at the University of Cape Town with a strong academic foundation in electrical systems and energy conversion, complemented by leadership experience as the Academic Chairperson for the EBE Student Council. My involvement in mentoring, tutoring, and project-based design work has strengthened my ability to apply engineering principles to practical, real-world challenges. I am particularly passionate about power engineering and sustainable energy solutions, aiming to contribute to the development of efficient, reliable systems that support South Africa's growing infrastructure and energy needs.
